A COLLECTION OF SMALL NOTES.

A splendid collection of notes of small values, mostly from 1 to 12½ cents. About a dozen are of the last century and the balance, almost without exception, are of the period of the scarcity of change during the second war with England. The greater portion are of the small towns in the vicinity of Albany, N. Y., and the collection would be invaluable to a historical society or New York collector. Notes of small value are rarely met with, and nearly all of this lot are excessively rare or unique. No duplicates. 74 notes: Lot for 100.00.

Among the lot are the following:

New York Manufacturing Society. One Penny. June 22, 1790.

HEATONS' "MINT MARKS."

The possessors of Heaton's popular and instructive treatise on "Mint Marks" are hereby informed that the author has in preparation loose sheet-lists of many carefully classified new varieties, together with an accurate arrangement of the mint marks themselves, to aid a number of enthusiastic investigators. These lists for insertion in the Treatise will be contributed by him, as completed, to applicants enclosing ten cents for occasional postage.

To any collectors not already supplied with "Mint Marks," I will forward a copy on receipt of $1.00, and will also forward to Mr. H., if desired, the additional ten cents for supplements, which he will supply as issued.
